The Colby Campaign.

After this week there will be a lull in the campaign of the leaders of the Republican State League for Equal Taxation, and it will not be until August 20th that Senator Colby will come down from his camp in the Thousand Islands. In the meantime, however, the various committees where there are well-organized legions will continue the work more enthusiastically than ever. In Passaic county there will be meetings in various wards in Passaic and Paterson and in many of the smaller towns. Morris county will start its series of schoolhouse meetings, and the managers of the Republican Good Government Club of Morris county expect that before September 30th to have Fred R. Kellogg and the other candidates for Assembly, not yet named, to speak in every schoolhouse in the county.

Alexander E. Fordyce, Jr., candidate for State Senator in Middlesex county, expects a busy time the week of August 6. Two or three meetings will be held nightly, and speakers from all over the State will give their views to the voters of Middlesex county.

On the night of August 9 Mr. Record, Mayor Egan, Chairman William P.
Martin of the Republican State League, and John S. Gibson, who is running for Congress in the Seventh Congressional District, together with Mr. Fordyce and other local men, will be the speakers.
During the week Caleb H. Whitbeck expects to form a permanent organization in Bergen county, with a full staff of officers and branch organizations in various parts of the county.

Following the mass-meetings in Camden, Collingswood and Merchantville on the night of August 1 the Equal Rights Republican Committee of Camden county will start the ball rolling in that style, and with such men as George M.
Berlinger, Harry F. Wolfe and Newton B. Boney at the head of it, and men of the stamp of Joseph E. Imhoff, George A.
White and Joseph B. Graw, the Assembly candidates, as speakers great results are promised from this county.

In Essex and Hudson counties the perfectly manned organizations, now working with the benefit of a year's experience, are running smoothly and are growing in strength daily.

Perhaps the most significant event in the past week, which has been an "off" one as far as large mass-meetings are concerned, was the conference held by the supporters of the "new idea" in the city of Newark. To this conference came delegates from each ward of the city apportioned in accordance with the Republican vote for Governor in 1904, the same as for a regular city convention, and as far as possible the various ward delegations were chosen from the districts in line with the new law passed by the last Legislature, making the district the unit instead of the ward.

The purpose of this conference was to come out in the open and discuss and vote upon the various candidates from different parts of the city for the principal city offices—Mayor and members of the Board of Works. The interest was marked, the attendance of delegates large, and the rivalry so keen that there was considerable doubt in the minds of all as to who would win out in the fight for the nomination for Mayor. Four candidates were in the field, endorsed by their respective wards, all of them men of influence and of good repute in the city, and any one of whom would ably perform the duties of the office. Amidst great enthusiasm the nominations of each were received, and although it was evident after the informal ballot what the result would be, the favorites of the various delegations were not deserted until the result of the formal ballot was ascertained; but until then, although somewhat reluctantly on the part of a few persons, the nomination of the successful candidate was made unanimous, and the conference adjourned under most favorable auspices, and with the idea of increased loyalty to the movement and an ardent intention to work hard in the coming fight at the primaries. Here was demonstrated clearly a way in which nominations, where there was an intense rivalry, could still be made in the open without a disruption in the ranks—such a marked improvement on the secret back-stair method pursued by the machines. Indeed, it has been generally reported that on the very same evening the machine was picking its candidates for the same positions, but if this report is true, there has been no openness manifest, for no reports of their deliberations have yet appeared in the public print.

The Endorsement of Mr. Record.

The announcement is made by the Essex Assemblymen at the tail-end of a general declaration of political views that they are determined to support George L. Record for the United States Senate. The decision was made in a secret conference, and it is said there were several opponents to Mr. Record's endorsement, but that Senator Colby made the action a personal matter and the Assemblymen yielded to his solicitations, or his directions, as the case may have been.

Senator Colby has prominently and warmly advocated a law for the nomination of United States Senators by the popular vote. It was made a feature of the last campaign, and the attitude of the "Colby Republicans" in favor of consulting the people in the selection of Senators, which the Federal Constitution now requires should be elected by the Legislature, gave that ticket many votes.

At the same time, Mr. Colby and his friends were hotly denouncing dictation and one-man rule was condemned with unmistakable vigor. The details are familiar to all. The difference between Senator Colby's present position and that which he occupied in the last campaign is irreconcilable. It is practice vs. principle.

A declaration for Mr. Record for Senator without previous consultation with the people, and apparently at the dictation of Mr. Colby, presents an issue which makes men pause and reflect. Are the people of Essex to be compelled to give an endorsement to Mr. Record because they want the services as legislators of the present delegation for other duties? So it would seem. The purpose of the politicians, old and new, is to make the people choose between Dryden and Record. Freedom of opinion is challenged—and by those who obtained power by advocating it.—Sunday Call.

Manhattan Beach.

Manhattan Beach is the world's most unique seaside resort. It is restful and refreshing, with all-pervading ocean breezes. It brings sea and city into close touch, and combines metropolitan amusements with rural quiet. There is neither tumult or toll. One may leave the bill-tering town behind, frolic in the surf, dine luxuriantly upon cool verandas, while watching the ever-shifting throng, and enjoy a performance in the theatre, all before reaching home at midnight.
E. E. Rice is presenting a capital musical comedy, "The Girl from Paris," now in its second week of crowded houses. So great is its success that it will be continued until Sunday, August 12. It does not suffer from competition with its original production at the Herald Square Theatre, "where it was to laugh" for an entire season.

Proctor's Newark Theatre.

The bill for the week of August 6 at Proctor's is sparkling with variety and excellence. Among the features are Mr. and Mrs. Perkins D. Fisher, who will present their prettiest of comedy playlets, "The Half-Way House." Mr.
Fisher's characterization of the old Innkeeper, is one of the choicest bits of comedy mingled with pathos to be seen in vaudeville.

"Minstrel Man," a black-face singing and dancing sketch, serves to introduce the Farrell-Taylor Duo. Harry Davenport, one of the famous Davenport family, ably sustains the name that was made a household word a decade ago by the renowned "Fanny."

A new departure, which will be both novel and interesting, is a pianologue by dainty little Merri Osborne. The Zarrow Trio, wonderful gymnasts and acrobats, and brand new animated pictures round out an unbeatable summer programme.

A Tactical Blunder.

The eleven Essex county Assemblymen have "come out into the open" in conformity with their policy of doing everything in the light of day and of submitting their choice of candidates and their principles to the judgment of the voters and have declared themselves in a public manifesto in favor of a long platform and of George L. Record for United States Senator. In declaring for Mr. Record the Essex men are thought in some quarters to have made a serious tactical mistake. It is said that Mr.
Record is not popular in Essex and that the declaration that it elected the present Assemblymen will vote for him will weaken and badly handicap their ticket.

The Trenton Times, which is bitterly hostile to the reform movement and to Mr. Record, declares that there has been no greater surprise in New Jersey politics "than this bold declaration of the Colbyites of Essex county in favor of the prince of demagogues and slandersers, Mr. Dryden ought to be able to carry the county without an effort."

The New Brunswick Home News, another strongly anti-reform paper, expresses the belief that "the fate of the Colby movement not only in Essex, but throughout the whole State, is now sealed by this crowning political blunder." Even the Paterson Press, which has leaned toward the new movement, feels constrained to remark that "this movement will probably prove as great a political mistake as was the original nomination of Mr. Record, which was clearly a blunder of the first magnitude. But this is a free country. If these gentlemen from Essex want to burn their political bridges there is no law forbidding that sort of arson."

The Newark Evening News, the most ardent Colby organ in the State, commends the candor and courage of their declaration for Mr. Record, but significantly avoids approving their choice.— New York Herald.
